

KIDSCAPE

Help With Bullying

Safeguarding and Child Protection
Awareness:
Early Years

Safeguarding and Child Protection Awareness: Early Years

This course has been specifically designed for the Early Years sector (0-5 years) and looks at current guidance, legislation and statutory regulation of early years providers.

Learning outcomes

On completion of this course delegates will be able to:

- Define child abuse and neglect
- Recognise the signs and symptoms that may indicate the abuse of a child
- Have an awareness of the appropriate legislation and key messages applicable to safeguarding babies, toddlers and children
- Respond appropriately to suspicion or knowledge that a child may be at risk of harm
- Be able to recognise the vulnerabilities to radicalisation
- Be aware of the potential online safety risks
- Deal appropriately with disclosures
- Understand and recognise the different types of abuse that children can be subjected to, including Child Sexual Exploitation, FGM, the Prevent Duty and online safety
- Understand the procedures practitioners should follow when abuse is suspected

Suitable for

Our Safeguarding and Child Protection Awareness: Early Years training course has been specifically designed for the Early Years sector. The course is suitable for managers, staff and volunteers.

For more details contact training@kidscape.org.uk