

HELP ME PLEASE

why oh why did they choose me no one really seems to see it's hard for me to go through this i'd rather run, jump and hiss i really wish i could tell but the bubble would swell someone really help me please it's like drowning in cheese i really wish that i had i don't want to make anyone mad not gone to that terrible day and mum had not had to pay for everything that i did i wish that i had run and hid in wish i had not stood up to the big kid who now treats me like a lid but because i told someone something really was done the one lesson to learn from this is to never let the bullies hiss the one thing to say so you don't have to pay is the word NO

BY NICOLE GRAY
AGE 12