

Tammie Binks

In my house there's so much to see and what used to happen to me There's a picture from 1843 and a name on a list that's similar to me.

There's a brown key that you will always see and a portrait of my Great, Great Grandma and nothing more you won't see and wont hear that used to happen to me.

There's my green car and not far there's my door and then you will see a person breathing over me.
There's a lock you will open and a door you will seek and there you will find that person who used to bully me.
